

CLEVELAND ROOTS COMMUNITY GARDEN

In the spring of 2017 Cleveland Roots is debuting a community garden at its Headquarters at West 41st and Robert Avenue.

The vision is an inclusive environment where families may grow their own food, bonding with neighbors and sharing cultural traditions.

We are seeking participants!

- Participation will be from mid-April through mid-November
- At least 2 people must participate per (4' x 8') garden bed.
- No herbicides, pesticides, or chemical fertilizers are allowed.
- The gardens are for growing food.
- Cleveland Roots will provide seeds and plant starts.
- It is expected that participants will maintain their garden weekly.
- The garden will be accessible only during regular hours.
- Participation is free, and sharing the bounty of the harvest with neighbors, family, and friends is encouraged!

Application deadline: March 31st 2017
